When you purchase the dress & shoes, if possible have them gift-wrapped. When you begin to get ready for the evening, present her with the gift that you wanted her to have for this special evening. Help her into the dress and be sure to admire her: is it just as you imagined she would look when you purchased it?

Pull out all of your gentlemanliness on this date: open and hold doors, hold her hand to help her up & down, and to guide her. Stand when she leaves/ returns to the table.
